SILVERCHAIR LEARNING SYSTEMS IS CO-SPONSOR OF ASHCAE FREESTANDING MEETING

Charlottesville, VA, AUGUST 5, 2009 – Silverchair Learning Systems, the leading online training provider in senior care, will serve as a co-sponsor of the American Society of Health Care Administration Executives (ASHCAE) meeting in Vail, Colorado August 5-7, 2009. This is the fourth consecutive year that Silverchair has sponsored this event.

“Silverchair is proud to once again sponsor and show support for ASHCAE and other state health care associations,” says Mike Mutka, President and COO of Silverchair Learning Systems.

Silverchair has a long-standing relationship with ASHCAE and the American Health Care Association (AHCA). Silverchair has consistently sponsored several AHCA events and initiatives, and the company has continued its service to state associations as the preferred training provider to more than 13 state associations.

The ASHCAE Freestanding meeting is an annual event where state health care association executives attend sessions covering industry issues. Executives also have the opportunity to network with other executives and AHCA sponsors. Silverchair is one of a select group of primary sponsors for the meeting.

“As always, we appreciate Silverchair’s partnership,” says Bruce Yarwood, President and CEO of AHCA. “Their support continues to give state association members access to premier online training for their senior care organizations.”
